

Seeking Volunteer Program Facilitators!

Out on the Shelf offers services to the LGBTQ2IA+ community of Guelph and Wellington, host a queer library and resource centre, and run various monthly programming. OOTS is a completely volunteer-run organization. We rely on our volunteers to help us achieve our goals and make our community a better, accessible, and accepting place for everyone.

Out on the Shelf values diversity and is dedicated to recruiting diverse volunteers from all walks of life. We prioritize recruitment of persons identifying in the LGBTQ2SIAA community and those in intersecting marginalized communities, including but not limited to people of colour, people with disabilities, people involved in sex work, and people who use substances.

2SGBTQ+ Guy's group

(vision: a safe space for queer guys who are anywhere along the spectrum of maleness to come together, share experiences, and connect in a social setting that is judgment-free, welcoming, and safe.)

See the Out on the Shelf Website for more information on the 2SGBTQ+ Guy's Group.
